Director's Notes

Wow! Camp has certainly flown by, hasn't it?! This is my 8th summer camp here at Theatre Woodstock and I am always amazed that we put together a show with all the fixings in just 8 days, with about 3 days of polishing and fixing. Your amazing young people have kept up with the whirlwind pace of camp; learning 2 to 3 songs and dance numbers each day is not easy, nor is playing up to 3 characters in the same show, and half of our cast are brand new to the stage!

One of my favourite things about camp this year has been seeing many campers emerge as leaders, others come out of their shells, and watching newcomers cultivate friendships with our seasoned performers. As much as putting on a fabulous performance is our focus, these are the things that truly matter the most at STAGES. I still have some friends from my camper days 18 years ago, so I hope that your children can say that long from now that they still have friends who were in this production with them.

Thank you to my incredible Artistic and Production team! Without their dedication, this show would have never happened. And thank you to YOU, our STAGES families, who trusted us with your children, donated your time to creating show props, bought jazz shoes, styled hair and practiced lines and songs at home.

Enjoy Willy Wonka KIDS!
